Duffy's Relieved Insomnia and Indigestion

Indigestion and Insomnia are two distressing com-plaints, which are hard to conquer with drugs. But here is a case where Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, a true product of nature, came to the relief of Mrs. Amelia Lang, again proving the ben-efit this great "Medicine for All Mankind" really is to suffering humanity.

"After being troubled with sleepless-ness and indigestion for some time, and not being able to obtain any relief I read one of your advertisements of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and decided to try it. I must say that my indigestion has disappeared and Duffy's is the only thing that overcame sleeplessness. I will always keep a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey on hand as I feel it to be a household remedy." edy."—Mrs. Amelia Lang, New York Ave. &3rd St., Jamaica Court, L.L., N. Y.

EXEMPTION FOR WESTERLY PLANT

Tax of George W. Parks Company Remitted Till 1920-Special Town Meeting the 23rd-Thirteen Arrests During October-Judgment for Plaintiff in Case of Cook vs Wakefield.

At the opening of the meeting of the Westerly town council, Monday, Judge Edward M. Burke, representing the George C. Moore company, stated that when the Moore company purchased the plant erected by the Westerly Narrow Fabric company from the George W. Parks company, the portion of the ten year exemption from taxation that remained was extended to the George W. Moore company, which was formerly located under the laws of Massachusetts. Now that the company is permanently located in Westerly, it was decided to incorporate under the Rhode Island laws, so that all the business of the company cound all the business of the company could be done in the state. He asked that exemption from taxation be extended to the company as at present organ-ized, which carried with it no exten-sion of the original ten years term and applied whelly to the manufacturing plant. Exemption for the un-expired term was granted as required and will terminate in May, 1920.

Miss Prestini, as bright as a polished button, not over six years of age, acted as interpreter for her mother, or rather pleaded her mother's case before the council. The little miss, with her head even with the rail, delivered this address to the council: We have two cows and two calves, and they nut them in the nound did not We have two cows and two caives, and they put them in the pound, did not drive the cows of others. We had to pay five dollars to get back our cows and caives, and here's the bill, all signed, as proof. The cows are little ones and should not be charged for so much. The crows were in the road, but what is mother to do when they come and break down the fences to pick blueberries on our land. We want a light at our house, just as others have lights at their house, and if we do not get it we will move back to a light at our house, just as others have lights at their house, and if we do not get it we will move back to John street, but we like the farm better. We paid $5 to the poundman for nothing, for others break down our fence. We want to show you that our cows are put in pound, but other people's cows are not. You ought not make us pay five dollars and other people pay nothing.

President Culley told the little girl to tell her mother that the council

Town Solicitor Agard, upon request of Town Tressurer Pendleton, asked that the call for a town meeting Tues-day of next week for the purpose of day of next week for the purpose of acting on a proposition to improve the condition of the Watch Hill road and roads at Watch Hill, be cancelled and the meeting called for a later date. Mr. Pendleton had informed him that the Westerly board of trade had appointed a special committee to prepare a report to be submitted in town meeting and that this could not be done unless the date of the meeting be changed. Then the details could changed. Then the details could arranged and intelligent action taken on the proposition. Councilman Haswell of the highway committee was not opposed to the change. Although a member of the board of trade, and chairman of the board of trade, and chairman of the highway committee, he had not been consulted, but he had heard that the board of trade expected to have an open meeting which would be ad-dressed by expert road builders and that also the state's engineer had been invited to come to Westerly in con-nection with this matter. As this im-provement as planned materialized the Thursday, when the president comes to speak at the 56th anniversary dinner of the Manhattan club. Meanwhile, Mrs. Galt expects to do some slopping. The bride-elect and her friend were escorted from Washington by a secret service man. They were met at the pennsylvania station by Colonel E. M. House and Dudley Field Malone.

In Stetson who was in his fifty-first year, has been in poor health for the work would be done under the direction of the highway committee and that the board of trade, as well as in the work would be done under the direction with this matter. As this invited to come to Westerl tions, etc. In some instances they beneated, but the improvement was not lasting.

With Hyomel you take into the air passages of your throat and head a beleamic air that goes into the minutest cells, and should effectually kill all germs and microbes of catarrh. Its purpose is to enter the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. The substance is to enter the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. The substance is the substance of the whole system. Many astonishing testimonials have been helped by Hyomel.

A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomel for several weeks treatment.

Perhaps the strongest evidence that can be given to deubters is the fact that Lee & Cagood have so much faith in Hyomel that they sell every package under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve.

Now is the time to begin the use of Hyomel and rid yourself of this sarious and oftentimes dangerous disease. Nothing is gained by waiting till the victous microbes of catarrh have made still further inroads on your health.
